SANATAN DHARMA

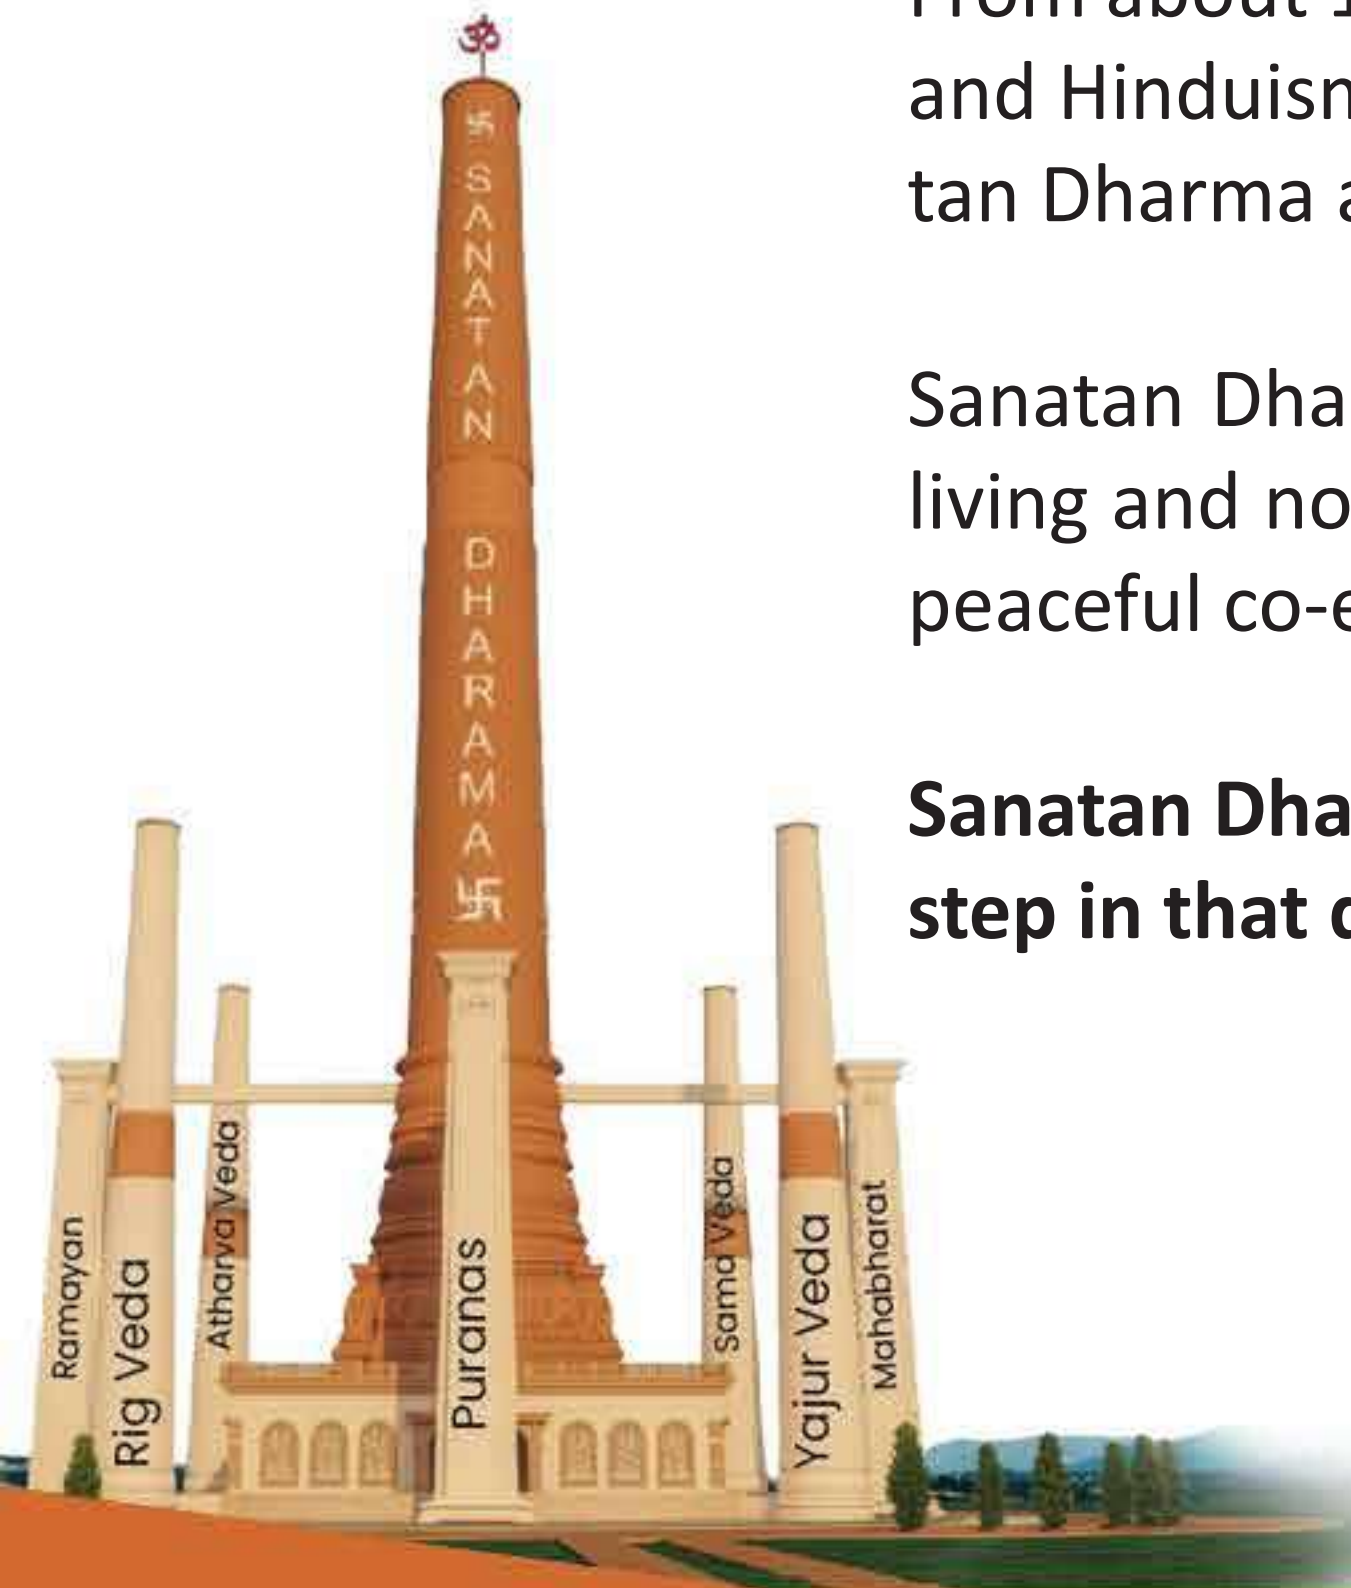

Background

It is universally recognized that Sanatan Dharma (Hinduism) is the oldest religious philosophy in the world. Sanatan Dharma scriptures “VEDAS” are the oldest holy books. Everybody, knowingly or unknowingly, was leading the life as per Vedas and believing in the existence of a Supernatural Power that has created this universe.

From about 1000 BC started the advent of various Religions. During this period new term “Hindu” came into existence and Hinduism promoted instead of Sanatan Dharma. It was done to push back the value system propagated by Sanatan Dharma and expand their religion by force, allurements, or coercion.

Sanatan Dharma means eternal values, duties & responsibilities as the Supernatural Power has set to follow for all living and non-living beings. After going through so much violence over 3,000 years, the realization is creeping in for peaceful co-existence of humankind.

Sanatan Dharma is the way forward for world peace. Resurgence of Sanatan Dharma is a step in that direction. Read more

SANATAN DHARMA HOLY CITY

Background

It is universally recognized that Sanatan Dharma (Hinduism) is the oldest religious philosophy in the world, though Dharma and Religion are not synonymous words in their meaning (see Chart). Sanatan Dharma scriptures “VEDAS” are the oldest holy books, though there are different opinions on how old they are. Modern historians have conservatively estimated it to be at least 7500 BC. However, further multi-disciplinary research indicates that VEDAS are more than 10,000 BC old. At that time everybody, knowingly or unknowingly, was leading the life as per Vedas and believing in the existence of a Supernatural Power that has created this universe and is Formless, Omnipresent, Omniscient and Omnipotent.

From about 1000 BC started the advent of various Religions / Sects / Sampradayas i.e., Judaism, Zoroastrian, Jainism, Buddhism, Christianity, Islam, Sikhism, Arya Samaj, Swaminarayan, Sai Baba etc. During this period new term “Hinduism” was coined and promoted instead of Sanatan Dharma. It was done to push back the value system propagated by Sanatan Dharma and expand their religion by force, allurements, or coercion.

Sanatan Dharma means eternal values, duties & responsibilities as the Supernatural Power has set to follow for all living and non-living beings. For the Supernatural Power (by whatever name it has been called during different times of civilization i.e., God, Allah or any other) the World is one family. After going through so much violence over 3,000 years, the realization is creeping in for peaceful co-existence of humankind.

Sanatan Dharma is the way forward for world peace. Resurgence of Sanatan Dharma is a step in that direction. What is Sana-tan Dharma and its value system, we shall be disseminating that knowledge.

SANATAN DHARMA HOLY CITY

Historical Facts

Sanatan scriptures say “Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam” meaning “World is one Family”. This ideology has restricted, the followers of Sanatan Dharma, to expand by way of conversions, invasions, wars, violence, allurements, coercion etc.

On the contrary onslaught of other religions on the followers of Sanatan Dharma has been going on for almost 3000 years. Due to this, followers of Sanatan Dharma shrank to the boundaries of India.

In spite of all this onslaught, India never attacked or invaded any country in its history.

Followers of Sanatan Dharma i.e., Hindus love to live in peace and have shown without any doubt that they are ready to co-exist peacefully with believers of other faiths. Hindus are the most tolerant people in the world and today they are respected for that.

Lately Hindus have taken an aggressive posture and it can take an ugly turn if the followers of other faiths do not come to terms to respect the Sanatan Dharma followers.
